November 24, 2025: In Response to the Demons Circling My Home with Images that They Own the Women

You are watching over my life and stealing my identity to paste over your disgusting face as your method to 'get chicks' and then you claim that you are the one that women want to be with?

Donald Trump: show the world your true face and then brag about how many women love you.

You all know damn well that you have been watching me for decades now and using my charm to persuade women that you are not a toxic rapist.

Show your true face to the world and then brag about your success with the 'ladies.'

Get fucked, Donald Trump. Get the fuck out of my home already you disgusting rapist.

I am sick and tired of experiencing the disgusting truth that you hide from the world.

Show all of this publicly and then brag about your success you stupid disgusting loser.
